VSB Anti-Racism and Non-Discrimination Engagement

SHARING CIRCLES

Share Your Story

Your voice matters in guiding the path forward. Participate in a virtual Sharing Circle where those with lived experience of facing racism and discrimination can share and be heard in a safe space. Learn more at www.vsb-strongertogether.ca

Sharing circles will be held virtually on Microsoft Teams between June 15 and 22:

Students who identify as Black/African descent

Tuesday, June 15 at 4pm

Students who identify as Indigenous

Wednesday, June 16 at 4pm

Students who identify as Newcomers/Refugees

Wednesday, June 16 at 4pm

Families who identify as Newcomers/Refugees

Wednesday, June 16 at 7pm

Students who identify as People of Colour

Thursday, June 17 at 4pm

Students who identify as East Asian/South East Asian descent

Tuesday, June 22 at 4pm

Students who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+

Tuesday, June 22 at 4pm

Students who identify as People with Disability

Thursday, June 17 at 6:30pm

NOTE: Each participant will be provided with a honorarium for their contribution. The Sharing Circles will be facilitated by an external organization called Urban Matters CCC.

All interested participants, including those who identify with multiple racial/ethnic backgrounds, are welcome to participate in a sharing circle group that most closely relates to their personal experience. For anyone interested in participating in a sharing circle who has lived experience of facing racism and discrimination but does not identify with any of the groups listed above, please send us an email.
