

3. There are many great digital libraries that are offering free access at the moment. Some of our favourites are:

a.  Epic Books (via app or www.getepic.com) Offers novels, picture books and even read aloud options for pre/early readers! You can email me, Mrs. Booth, lbooth@vsb.ca to register.

b.  Raz-kids (via app or <https://www.raz-kids.com/>) Offers levelled stories fiction and non-fiction. It will provide read aloud, quizzes and record their own voices. You can email me Mrs. Booth, lbooth@vsb.ca to register.

c.  children's books read by famous people. Free trial.

d.  Vancouver Public Library. (www.vpl.ca) They have a large digital library that gives kids access to online books either with an adult or without. No library card? No problem, you can register online.

e.  Audible <https://stories.audible.com/start-listen> A great collection of audio books for kids, from picture books to fairytales and novels. Free instant streaming, no accounts needed!

d.  Tumblebooks tumblebooklibrary.com Free ebooks including audio books and graphic novels.

These are all just suggestions, please do not feel obligated! Playing games, running outside, drawing and spending time with family are all important parts of learning.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any issues and stay tuned for more resources and information in the coming weeks!

Stay healthy everyone, we miss you!
