Message from the Principal

Dear Lord Byng Parents, Students and Community Members,

With just one more week of the summer vacation left before the start of school on September 6th I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you all back for the start of what promises to be another exciting year of teaching and learning here at Byng!

For those of you that are part of our Grade 8 student class starting with us in September or are a new student at the school I would like to extend a special welcome. The August newsletter is the first weekly newsletter of the year and will provide you with some important information for your first week of school. We will be sending out an email to each student, with more information regarding homerooms and MyEd access, next week.

Have a great weekend and enjoy your final week of vacation!

Mr. Wilmann
