

NEWCOMER PARENT LEADERSHIP PROJECT (NPLP)

NPLP is specifically designed to help new immigrant parents learn to become leaders in their school communities. By taking part in this project, you will:

- Gain an in depth understanding of how the Vancouver school system works
- Get involved in your child's school & education
- Learn to support students with diverse learning needs
- Gain experience in a multicultural setting
- Learn how to become an active volunteer in our district
 - District volunteers receive a Certificate of Recognition for their participation in volunteer opportunities

WHO CAN JOIN?

A parent of a child attending a school in the Vancouver school district that possesses strong communication skills in English and is able to commit to 9 morning training sessions

WHERE AND WHEN IS THIS TAKING PLACE?

Online on Zoom (invitation will be provided)

Monday, May 30th to Thursday, June 9th from 9:30 AM - 12:00 PM

- Please note that the session on June 1st and 8th will be ending at 2:00 PM

An information session is taking place either on Tuesday, May 24th or Wednesday, May 25th from 9:30 AM - 11:30 AM (you only need to attend one)

HOW CAN I REGISTER?

Please click HERE to register online or click here to access the contact for the Settlement Worker at your school or

If you have additional questions please contact
Le Van Chu, Volunteer Coordinator

Settlement Workers in Schools (SWIS) NPLP Host

Funded by:

Engaged Immigrant Youth
NPLP Collaborators
Financé par :

Vancouver School Board

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Immigration, Réfugiés
et Citoyenneté Canada